Occasionally, we may take photographs of the students studying at BAC. We use these images for advertisements and printed publications (such as brochures, newspapers, and so on) We may also use them on our BAC website and social media pages.

If we use photographs of individual students, we will not add a full name to the accompanying text or photo caption. If we give a full name a student in the text, we will not use a photograph of that student to accompany the article. We will ensure that images are culturally acceptable, to reduce the risk of these images being used inappropriately.

From time to time, our College may be visited by the media and professional photographers, who may take photographs or video footage of an event, celebration, or promotional activity. Students may appear in these images, which will sometimes be published in local or national newspapers, or on approved websites.
